Hi and welcome. My name is Claire and I am the Shop Owner. I am proud of the lovely gifts and pieces I have to offer, especially because they are ethically-sourced from around the globe. This means if you are looking for something probably not on your High Street and a bit unique, then this is a great place to look! The gifts and pieces that have been handmade, hand carved and crafted, are made using sustainable materials, such as in the Wooden Gifts department, where Suar and Albesia wood are often used to create uniquely carved pieces. In my Bath & Body department, discover handcrafted bath bombs and soap slices that use natural ingredients such as essential oils. MULTI BUY SAVINGS ON MOST BATH BOMBS AND SOAP SLICES! Fill your boots, or should I say, bathroom? Speaking of essential oils, if the recipient of your gift, or perhaps you yourself loves anything that's made from natural resources, which can be used for treating ailments and such like, you should visit my 'Aromatherapy Products' department, where I have a great selection of 100% pure and natural essential oils, made here in the UK by Ancient Wisdom and includes essential oils, oil blends, carrier/ base oils, other aromatherapy related products. Perfect gift ideas for the lover of aromatherapy and / or natural products for health and wellbeing. If you are unsure of which oils to try, I am more than happy to point you in the right direction; simply contact me and I will respond as soon as possible: (I always acknowledge within a few hours), however, may need a little longer when responding with advice, which is based both on my own personal use and experience with using essential oils, as well as ongoing research of them and their powerful benefits. Then I had to decide what I wanted to sell as an online retailer. As I am into recycling and re-purposing stuff around the home where possible, Many of the products are delivered directly from my Supplier, which means I have less overheads, which in turn means I can charge the RRP and sometimes less, on the different gifts and pieces on offer. New products are added Monthly! I also have many selected items with multi-buy savings available, which is ideal if you have a lot of gift buying to do throughout the year! 30 Days No Quibble Money Back Guarantee Thanks for reading this today, I'll let you get on with some happy browsing!
